Rev. Philip Akuaku Noah
Provost, DCIBIN
Head of School of Ministry

Dear Applicant,

Destiny Changers International Bible Institute (DCIBIN) is one of the prestigious online Bible Schools in our time today. The comprehensive curriculum developed for all the three schools within this institution is unapparelled compared to many other Bible school programs around the world. Most of the faculty members are into ministry, and therefore are able to impact our students in ways, that greatly showcase the cream of the crop type of ministers needed in our world today.

I greatly encourage all students who enroll in any of our Advanced specialization schools; School of Prophets (SOP) and the TREM School of Worship (TSOW), to seriously consider pursuing an Advanced Diploma in Christian Ministry, our comprehensive premier program that equips our students with the full knowledge of Christian Ministry. I look forward to meeting you as a student in DCIBIN.

Yours Faithfully,

Rev. Philip Akuaku Noah

ABOUT DCIBIN

History

Destiny Changers International Bible Institute, then DCI School of Ministry (DCISOM), was founded and established in December 2015 by Rev. David Mensah Noah and Rev. Rosemary Koomson. The school opened its doors to the first round of students on Sunday, January 3rd, 2016 via phone conferencing. It's first instructors, Rev. Philip Akuaku Noah, and Rev. Rosemary Koomson, taught the enrolled students for 6 months in Christian Ministry. A couple of the students were ordained into ministry by the DCI Ministerial Network (DCIMN) in July and November 2016, upon completion of their ministerial training from the school. As a new and growing institution, then DCISOM, upgraded to a more functional and robust technologically driven educational platform to give students worldwide an online educational platform.

On July 1, 2017, the institution changed its name from DCI School of Ministry to Destiny Changers International Bible Institute (DCIBIN), with official filings with the state of Ohio. It has officially graduated two class years; class of 2017 and class of 2018 since its name change. As a religious tertiary institution, we are not required by law to be accredited. However, the school is in the process of pursuing accreditation to give our students leverage in securing government financial aid and be able to transfer to or continue their education in other tertiary institutions.

ADVANCED DIPLOMA IN PROPHETIC STUDIES

All Schools within DCIBIN are properly organized to equip the students for effective ministry. The depth of the subjects treated and the practical training for our students ensures they can rightly divide the word of God, to edify the body of Christ and become great leaders in their various ministries.

Area of Specialization

The School of Prophets (S.O.P) is an advanced area of specialization for those called into the Prophetic office. There are students who have already attended a Bible or Ministry school and would like to just concentrate in the area of their calling, thus pursue our Advanced Diploma in Prophetic Studies.

Some of our students who enroll in our School of Ministry, choose the Prophetic Ministry as their area of specialization, thus enabling them to have a major program and an area of specialization as well.

Prior Knowledge/Experience

Students are expected to have some knowledge and understanding of the Prophetic ministry prior to enrolling in the school of Prophets. Some students attend a prophetic church or ministry and have been exposed to the dynamics in the prophetic ministry. Some are also mentored by prophets/prophetesses and are learning hands on about the office of a prophet.

Rarely, do we find students who have no clue about the Prophetic, as we expect students who enroll to know they have been called into the prophetic ministry.

Courses

Some of the courses offered in the School of Ministry (S.O.M) are also part of some of the core courses offered in the school of Prophets. Students who are in both schools only need to take that course once and it will count towards their course credit(s).

FINANCIAL OBLIGATION FOR 2021

Making a personal investment into your call to ministry is worthwhile, knowing the knowledge, skill set and experiences you receive are a lifetime achievement. We have therefore made it easy and affordable for students to be able to pay for their tuition and fees through our Flexible Payment Plan (FPP). Students are able to set up a tuition installment payment plan (FPP) for 65% of their tuition within a six-month period.

We are unable to accept federal financial aid at this time, however, the school offers scholarship for students who need financial assistance. Also, the office of alumni manages a limited number of scholarships and sponsorship for students with financial needs. You can reach the alumni office by emailing alumni@dcibin.com for more information and assistance.

How to pay your tuition:

- Students are required to pay a minimum of 25% of their tuition upon enrollment and have the option of paying the remaining tuition within 90 days of enrollment if they opt for the lump sum option for paying their tuition in full.
- Students can also sign a Flexible Payment Plan (FPP) to pay the rest of their tuition (75%) within 10 months of enrollment.
- If a student receives a scholarship, it is only applied after the student has paid their part of the tuition owed. Scholarships are applied on a matching basis; the amount in scholarship is paid as the students pays their FPP. If the student drops out, any outstanding scholarship amounts will be cancelled, and the student will be responsible for the remaining balance of their tuition. Scholarships do not apply to application and graduation fees.
